

2.3.1. Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences.

Response:

The college conducts various student centric activities throughout the year. The learning becomes more experiential, participatory and socialistic by organizing activities like group discussions, legal literacy camps, debates, quiz, assignments, project writing, and publication of wallpapers, writing articles, poetry recitation etc. The college encourages students to participate in various co-curricular activities, extra-curricular activities, sports and cultural events which help the students for their all-round personality developments.

Team spirit and leadership qualities are developed in the students through group discussions, project work on useful topics like stress management, communication skills, personality development and time management. The college promotes creativity amongst students by encouraging them to publish articles in the college magazine and wall papers. The college has annual publication (college Magazine) called "LEX POPULI", Students are assigned to work on the editorial board of college magazine which improves their creative and administrative skills.

To imbibe patriotic and social values among students various Days like Teachers' Day, Independence Day, Republic Day, NSS Day, Maharashtra Day, and Anniversaries of national heroes are celebrated.

Feedback of the Course and teachers, given by students at the end of each semester provides an opportunity to identify any lacunae which can then be addressed.

Teachers make classes as interactive as possible and encourage innovative thought and novel interpretations. Audio- Visual methodology, Google Classroom, Projects Writing are some of the means utilized by the College to provide experiential and participative learning.

Internal assessments are so planned so as to encourage students to work independently. Written Assignments are required to be submitted by students and these need to be done individually by researching on the given topic so as to enhance confidence, develop writing skills and hone style, apart from inculcating an interest in research activities.
